Pāmu Deer Milk

Exclusive, natural and rare from the South Island of New Zealand. Peter and Sharon McIntyre are a fifth-generation farming family with a farm set deep in the stunning South Island of New Zealand. The deer are farmed with all the natural nutritional goodness of grass-fed pastures and are free to roam outdoors. Pāmu Deer Milk is an exclusive and rare ingredient. Rich in protein, high in fat, Pāmu Deer Milk has a clean, mild flavour and pure white colour. It is deliciously creamy with a silky mouth feel.

Munro Honey

From native bush blocks and southern fields, artisan honey producer Munro Honey Co tends their honey bees. They pride themselves on honey that is honest and unrefined - just as the bees intended. Recognised winning the Environmental Sustainability in Business Award for 2019.
